DMRC General Policies and User Agreement

Users not in compliance with these policies will lose their access to the equipment. As a user, you understand and agree that:

1. Users must keep the bench and lab clean and immediately report problems with the equipment to Ms. Lombardo and Prof. Pham.

2. You will not use, move, or otherwise disturb equipment or chemicals that are not part your own set-up and your renting equipment.

3. You understand that other highly sensitive instruments are used nearby and, for your safety; you will not come close and will not touch any instruments that are not rented to you.

4. The DMRC lab is under constant video surveillance.

5. The user is responsible for maintaining a safe environment. The user and his/her advisor are responsible (for all cost to replace the damaged piece of equipment or cost associated with repairing the equipment) for any damages to the instruments caused during the operation.

6. Only authorized users can be admitted to the DMRC lab.
